

Contents

Foreword — VII

Introduction — 1

The State of Research, Theories, and Methods

- 1 The State of Research — 7
 - 1.1 On the Concept and Topic of Interreligiosity — 7
 - 1.2 The Relation between Religion and Conflict: Research Trends — 26

- 2 Theoretical Considerations: Identity and Conflict — 45
 - 2.1 Reflections on the Concept of Identity — 45
 - 2.2 Theoretical Perspectives on Conflict and Conflict Potential — 56
 - 2.3 Our Conception of Identity, Conflict, Interreligiosity, Religious Education and Religious Didactics — 66

- 3 Research Methodology and Design — 71
 - 3.1 Methodological Orientation — 71
 - 3.2 The Research Strategy and Data Collection — 73
 - 3.3 Evaluation — 81
 - 3.4 Presentation — 84

Empirical Analysis

- 4 The School Setting — 89
 - 4.1 Description of the School Setting — 89
 - 4.2 Area of Conflict 1: (Religious) Group Dynamics — 99
 - 4.3 Area of Conflict 2: Themes and Methodology — 111
 - 4.4 Area of Conflict 3: Identity and Confessionality — 124

- 5 The University Setting — 146
 - 5.1 Description of the University Setting — 146
 - 5.2 Area of Conflict 1: Planning, Approach, and Expectations — 153

VI — Contents

- 5.3 Area of Conflict 2: Process, Communication, and Group Dynamics — 167
- 5.4 Area of Conflict 3: Conflict about ‘Ideal’ Religious Education and Recognition — 185

Synopsis and Stimuli

- 6 Perspectives for Interreligious Education — 203

Bibliography — 211