

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	V
List of Abbreviations.....	XI
Note on Translations and Citations.....	XIII
 Chapter 1: Introduction	 1
 Chapter 2: “Anomalies” and a Call for a Paradigm Shift: Assessing the New Perspective on Paul and the Post-New Perspective.....	 15
2.1 Introduction.....	15
2.2 Problem 1: Appeals to the Notions of Incompatibility, Incongruity, and Conditionality and the Failure to Grasp Sanders’s Stress on the Importance of Presupposition	 19
2.3 Problem 2: Interpretive Slipperiness That Cannot Account for the Gap between “Need Not” (Gentile Believers Need Not Be Circumcised) and “Must Not” (Gentile Converts Must Not Get Circumcision).....	 45
2.3 Problem 3: The Problem of the Rhetoric of Re-	47
 Chapter 3: The Curse Motif in Galatians and the Significance of the Galatians’ Cultural Assumptions in Analysis of Paul’s Argumentation: A Preliminary Survey.....	 53
3.1 Introduction.....	53
3.2 The Prevalence of the Curse Motif in Galatians.....	58

3.3 Who Was the Main Target of Paul's Argument?	82
---	----

Chapter 4: The Distinctive Rhetorical Features in Galatians.....87

4.1 Introduction.....	87
4.2 Paul's Negative Portrait of the Agitators as Evil Magicians	87
4.3 Paul's Repeated Reversal of the Traditional Jewish Reading of Scripture.....	97
4.4 The Normative Character of the Pauline Gospel.....	117

Chapter 5: Reading Galatians through the Lens of the Curse Theme131

5.1 Christ Giving Himself Up: A New Reading of Gal 1:4 and Its Implications for Other Themes in Galatians	131
5.2 Paul's Argument from Example and Experience: Highlighting the Fragility of the Relationship with Christ.....	149
5.3 Slavery of Galatians and the στοιχεῖα: A Rhetorical Reading of Gal 4:4 and 4:9.....	164
5.4 Reading Gal 3:10–14 through the Lens of Rhetorical Stasis Theory	171
5.5 Gal 4:21–31: Paul Synthesizes the Previous Argument by Retelling the Story of Hagar and Sarah.....	184
5.6 The Christ-Event as a Covenant: A New Reading of Gal 5:4 through the Lens of Kārēt (כרת) Penalty.....	195
5.7 Gal 5:21: The Final Threat	208

Chapter 6: Concluding Remarks211

Table of Contents

IX

Bibliography.....	215
Index of Passages	229
Index of Modern Authors	237
Index of Subjects.....	240