

Contents

1 Food Insecurity in Europe: From the Availability of Food to the Substantive Freedoms in Accessing it	1
1.1 The Measure of Food Insecurity, from Protein Meals to the Quality of Nutrition: A Focus on Italy, Spain and Greece	1
1.2 From an Emergency Approach to a Substantive Freedoms Approach to Food Security	3
1.3 The Precipitating Factors of a State of Food Insecurity: Availability, Access and Social use of Food	6
2 Collective Initiatives and Their Innovative Responses to Food Insecurity Challenges	11
2.1 Urban Food Diplomacy: The Local Dimension of Food Security from a Global Impact Perspective	11
2.2 Collective Initiatives in Italy, Spain and Greece	13
2.2.1 Information Box: Collective Initiatives for Food Security in Italy, Spain and Greece	17
3 Collective Actions of Solidarity and Their Impact in Terms of Capabilities	19
3.1 Capabilities and the Social Dimension of Freedoms	19
3.2 The Social Perspective of Capabilities: A Critical Review	23
3.3 The Creative Power of Collective Agency	26
3.4 Collective Actions of Solidarity in Terms of Social Co-responsibility: Individual Agency and Capability for Voice	28
4 The Empirical Research	33
4.1 Case Studies and Methods	33
4.1.1 Emporium of Solidarity, Solidarity Card and Solidarity Kitchen: The Perspective of the Coordinators	34
4.1.2 Operationalising the Capability Approach: Life Trajectories of the Beneficiaries	35
4.1.3 Capabilities-Oriented Initiatives or “Compensation for Shortcomings” Initiatives	38
	xv

5	Emporium of Solidarity, Solidarity Card and Solidarity Kitchen: The Impact of Social Solidarity in Terms of Capability for Voice	41
5.1	Rome: The Emporium of Solidarity	41
5.2	Barcelona: The Solidarity Card	44
5.3	Athens: Kipoda's Solidarity Kitchen	48
6	Emporium of Solidarity, Solidarity Card and Solidarity Kitchen: The Impact of Social Solidarity in Terms of Strengthening Beneficiaries' Agency	55
6.1	Rome: The Emporium of Solidarity	55
6.2	Barcelona: The Solidarity Card	57
6.3	Athens: Kipoda's Solidarity Kitchen	60
7	Capabilities-Oriented Initiatives or Mere Compensation for Shortcomings: A Comparative Reflection	65
7.1	The Life Trajectories of the Beneficiaries: Shared Enabling and Disabling Factors in Terms of Capabilities	65
7.2	"Capabilities-Oriented" or "Compensation for Shortcomings" Initiatives	67
8	Concluding Remarks	71
8.1	City-Based Initiatives Against Food Insecurity: From a Productivist to a Capabilities-Oriented Perspective	71
8.2	From "Food to Freedom" and From "Freedom to Food"	74
	Appendix 1: Emporium of Solidarity in Rome	77
	Appendix 2: The Solidarity Card in Barcelona	79
	Appendix 3: The Solidarity Kitchen in Athens	81
	References	83