

Contents

|                        |   |
|------------------------|---|
| Acknowledgements ..... | 7 |
|------------------------|---|

Marta Soniewicka

|                    |   |
|--------------------|---|
| Introduction ..... | 9 |
|--------------------|---|

Part I: Genetic Selection

Marta Soniewicka

|                                                                           |    |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 1 Ethical standards of genetic counselling and reproductive autonomy .... | 21 |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|----|

Wojciech Lewandowski

|                                                          |    |
|----------------------------------------------------------|----|
| 2 The criteria of rationality in genetic selection ..... | 35 |
|----------------------------------------------------------|----|

Marta Soniewicka

|                                                  |    |
|--------------------------------------------------|----|
| 3 Sex as a criterion for progeny selection ..... | 51 |
|--------------------------------------------------|----|

Marta Soniewicka

|                           |    |
|---------------------------|----|
| 4 Reproductive harm ..... | 71 |
|---------------------------|----|

Marta Soniewicka

|                                              |     |
|----------------------------------------------|-----|
| 5 Selective procreation and disability ..... | 101 |
|----------------------------------------------|-----|

Wojciech Lewandowski

|                                                     |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 6 Parent-God analogy in procreative decisions ..... | 117 |
|-----------------------------------------------------|-----|

Wojciech Lewandowski

|                                                |     |
|------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 7 Spare embryos and parental obligations ..... | 135 |
|------------------------------------------------|-----|

Part II: Genetic Enhancement

Marta Soniewicka

|                                                                      |     |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 8 The question of justice in the debate over human enhancement ..... | 155 |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|

Marta Soniewicka

|                                                                                                        |     |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 9 Human self-understanding in the debate over moral human enhancement: autonomy and authenticity ..... | 183 |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|

|    |                                                                                                               |     |
|----|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
|    | Wojciech Lewandowski                                                                                   |     |
| 10 | Genetic enhancement and moral perfection .....                                                                | 229 |
|    | Wojciech Lewandowski                                                                                   |     |
| 11 | Bioconservatism and the preference for status quo .....                                                | 247 |
|    | Wojciech Lewandowski                                                                                   |     |
| 12 | Procreative autonomy in the context of person-affecting andimpersonal reasons for human enhancement ..... | 259 |
|    | Wojciech Lewandowski                                                                                   |     |
| 13 | Intrinsic and instrumental values in the assessment of humanenhancement .....                             | 271 |
|    | Wojciech Lewandowski                                                                                   |     |
|    | Concluding remarks .....                                                                                      | 287 |
|    | Index .....                                                                                                   | 289 |