Acknowledgements

This thesis was accepted as a doctoral dissertation by the Faculty of Law of the University of Cologne in March 2022. Jurisprudence and literature up until June 2022 were taken into account.

Numerous people have contributed to the success of this work. I am incredibly grateful to my doctoral supervisor, Professor Bernhard Kempen who not only guided and encouraged me at every stage of this project but also enabled my research visit in Florence. I would also like to thank my second examiner, Junior Professor Julian Scheu for the speedy completion of the second opinion and his encouragement for the publication of the dissertation.

In addition, I am very grateful to the Seidl-Hohenveldern Verein zur Förderung der Völkerrechtswissenschaften and the Association of Friends and Supporters of the International Investment Law Institute Cologne for their financial support of this publication.

I was fortunate to be able to count on many friends and colleagues during the work on this project. I benefitted from every discussion I had with the various friends of international investment law at the European University Institute in Florence as well as the International Investment Law Institute Cologne. Thank you!

In particular, I would like to thank Malaika Jores, Niclas Landmann, Carla Müller, Philipp Reinhold, and Lisa van Aaken for reading parts of my work at various stages of the project and providing helpful feedback.

I am forever thankful for the encouragement of Julian Craven, Josephine Kemmet, Nora Reibel, and Nora von Hammerstein. Your moral and culinary support have given me the confidence and perseverance to pursue and complete this project!

Finally, I want to thank my family, especially my parents, Mirjam Schwerk and Michael Braun. This work would not have been possible without their confidence and support, not only throughout this project but throughout my whole life. This book is dedicated to them.
